(Article 247.a paragraph 1 item 2 of the Act)

Remuneration of the Company's Management Board members can be divided into three categories: fixed remuneration, variable remuneration and other benefits, and together they make up the total remuneration of the Management Board.

In determining the amount and type of remuneration of the Management Board members, the Company took into account the salaries and positions of all its employees (Article 247.a, paragraph 1, item 7 of the Act). As one of the most desirable employers in the sector and in the country in general, the Company believes that adequate compensation, permanent investment in education and training as well as other working conditions that ensure a high level of quality of life and development for employees are the key to success and responsible and successful business. Remuneration of board members is proportional to the amount of work they perform, their high expertise and education, and the responsibility that arises from their position.

2.1. Fixed remuneration

The fixed remuneration of the Management Board members consists of the basic monthly salary expressed in its gross amount.

Fixed remuneration is determined, both in absolute and relative terms, in a sufficient amount to provide financial security and stability, i.e. to enable a Management Board member to be independent of the variable part of remuneration.

Determined in such a way, the fixed part of their remuneration encourages responsible decision-making, eliminating the need to take unnecessary risks.

2.2. Variable remuneration

Variable remuneration consists of bonuses which can be paid to a Management Board member in accordance with the results achieved in the business year (hereinafter:

Bonuses) and participation in the long-term incentive plan for key executives (hereinafter: LTIP).

The degree of participation in the LTIP is determined in accordance with the individual contract of the Management Board member.

Variable remuneration is conditioned by the criteria for payment in a way that rewards business management which achieves the sustainable development of the Company (Article 247a, paragraph 1, item 3a of the Act). Together with fixed remunerations, they are an ideal incentive for the Management Board to lead the Company's operations responsibly, without taking unnecessary risks, and with the aim of developing and creating added value in a sustainable and innovative way.

The shares are distributed to the Management Board members by the end of June of the current business year for the previous business year (Article 247.a, paragraph 1, item 5.a of the Act).

2.2.3. Limitations and return of the variable component of the remuneration
(Article 247.a paragraph 1 item 4 of the Act)
